The early settlers of Sherbrooke were New Englanders and Scots, both ethnic groups who honoured education, and they provided schools for their children long before the Free School Acts of 1864 and 1865. Indeed, the petitions sent to the Legislature are unusual for the period because the petitioners were able to write their own names and no one signed them with an 'X'.

In 1817 David Archibald 3rd deeded a lot of land at Sherbrooke to be used as a site for a school and meeting house, but school classes were probably taught in a room in one of the houses before a schoolhouse was constructed, as tradition relates that William Bent held school in his kitchen.(86)

David Archibald 3rd, Wentworth Taylor, and David Fisher were trustees for the school at Sherbrooke where William Bent was paid 25 lbs. for teaching from December 1st 1815 to December 1st 1816.(87) Hugh MacDonald was paid 12.10 shillings "for teaching and superintending the school... for one half year" from the 15th December 1816 to 15th June 1817. David Archibald, Wentworth Taylor and William Taylor were the trustees.(88) A school was built in 1818 and used for twenty years, with church services also being held in the building.(89)

New schoolhouses were built in 1850 and 1867. In 1850 J. W. Dawson, the Superintendent of Education for Nova Scotia, was visiting various districts and holding meetings. He wrote about the St. Mary's District: "the Commissioners are active and labourious, and their clerk, Rev. J. Campbell, is one of the most useful and zealous friends of education in the district... I was much pleased to find in process of erection, at Sherbrooke, a very well planned schoolhouse. I gave some suggestions on the subject of seating, and trust that when finished it will be a model to the district".(90)

In his report in 1867, School Inspector Samuel R. Russell mentioned the long continued depression of business and the successive failures of the fishery on the coast. However, within the last year a school had been built at Sherbrooke "scarcely inferior to the county Academy, except in size, and play grounds". Furnished with patent desks, it had two departments, and was well attended, and in charge of competent teachers.(91)

The first meeting of the School Board for the District of St. Mary's under the Education Act of 1864 was held at the Court House in Sherbrooke on the 4th of November 1864 with the following present: Rev. John Campbell, Rev. Henry Eagles, Charles Burns, Hugh McDonald Esquire, John W. McKeen, Esquire, Alexander Cumming, Neil Gunn, Abner P. McKenzie, Esquire, and Samuel R. Russell, Inspector of Schools for Guysborough County. They apportioned the school grant and examined teachers for licences. John D. Copeland and John F. Fraser, teachers at Sherbrooke for six months in 1866, received as government grants $124.10 and $125.30 respectively.

It has always been a problem to provide good schools and well qualified teachers in the poorer districts of Halifax and Guysborough Counties - a problem with which successive Boards of Trustees and Inspectors of Education have struggled. The opening of the St. Mary's Rural High School at Sherbrooke has done much to provide first class educational facilities for junior high and senior high school for children from a large district.

St. Mary's Rural High School opened in September 1953 to serve Grades 7 to 12 from 31 rural and village sections in the Municipality of St. Mary's. The first year there was an enrollment of approximately 250 students, with a staff of seven academic teachers and two specialists. The official opening took place on November 1, 1953. It was located on several acres of high ground overlooking the beautiful St. Mary's River and the village of Sherbrooke, and for the first time in the educational history of the municipality provided an opportunity for all the boys and girls of the area to acquire a good education on the secondary level(92).

While searching some properties, I discovered the following in reference to Daniel Taylor. Literature suggest he went to Illinois in 1835. I found the following: In 1838 he obtained a Mort. for 350 pounds on his Onslow properties and then in 1839 he sold two of them - (1) to David Lynds & 2. to John Goudge for 350 pounds. I doubt that he would travel all the way back to NS so I would think he & Eunice left in 1839 after selling their lands.

rphins fourt of lontgomery gounty ESTATE of WILLIAM W TAYLOR DEc D 1 A trustee is entitled to reasonable commissions upon the income of an estate in his hands collected by him and paid over to annuitants and five per cent on an income of $471.92 is not unreasonable 2 The commissions and also the state tax are to be deducted from the gross sum collected and although this diminishes the residuary annuity there can be no proportionate abatement of the general specified annuities bequeathed in fixed sums The following facts were agreed upon by the parties in interest William W Taylor died in Upper Providence July 13 1883 leaving a last will and testament by which he appointed Frank M Hobson his executor and trustee The question of compensation as executor was decided in an opinion reported in the MontGOMERY County LAw REPORTER Volume I page 53 Under this will the following persons are entitled to yearly annuities from the fund in the hands of the trustee 1st The Freeland Sunday School Association twenty five dollars 2d The trustees of Trinity Christian Church Colledgeville twenty dollars 3d Susan Roberts sixty dollars payable quarterly 4th The balance of the annual income is to be paid quarterly to testator's daughter Harriet Rambo The court is asked to pass upon the following questions and decree distribution in conformity with such opinion viz First At what place or places are the several annuities due to church Sunday school Susan B Roberts and Mrs Harriet Rambo due and payable Second Is the trustee entitled to any compensation or commission upon the annual interest or income collected and disbursed by him and if so at what rate per centum Third In computing this compensation if any is chargeable shall each special and residuary annuitant pay their proportionate shares and parts or shall the whole be deducted from the residue due to Mrs Harriet Rambo P Fourth In deducting the state or county tax due and payable upon this fund shall each annuitant pay his her or their share or Estate of William W Taylor dec d part or shall the whole tax be deducted from the residuary annuitant Fifth Shall each of the quarterly payments to Mrs Rambo have the proportionate part of the commissions tax special yearly annuities etc deducted or shall the whole of said deductions be made only from the last quarterly payment of each year Charles Hunsicker and Theo W Bean Esqs for residuary annuitant The trustee is not entitled to commissions Soliday vs Bessely 2 Jones 347 The will says The trustee shall pay to her the whole income or interest less the special annuities FG Hobson Esq for trustee and for special annuitants A trustee is entitled to five per cent commission out of the income Spangler's Estate 9 Harris 335 Wister's Appeal 5 Norris 160 Barclay's Estate 2 WNC 447 O Donnell's Estate 4 Id 91 sc 5 Id 534 Biddle's Appeal 2 Norris 345 Ogden vs Murray 39 NY 202 The commission must all be deducted from the residuary annuitant The analogy between this and special and residuary legatees is perfect Spangler's Estate 9 Harris 337 The opinion of the court was filed November 2 1885 by BoyER PJ The counsel representing the several parties in interest have submitted an agreement in the nature of a case stated for the opinion of the court which embraces some points not necessarily involved in the distribution of the fund now in hand and upon which the opinion of the court can be deemed as only advisory 1 Of this description is the first point of inquiry as to the places where the trustee is to pay over to the several beneficiaries their respective portions of the income Practically among considerate and accommodating persons bickerings upon such a subject seldom arise as they usually can make among themselves upon this point some mutually satisfactory arrangement Primarily upon him who has the money to pay usually devolves the duty of tender to the party entitled to receive it and it follows that there may be the I66 MONTGOMERY COUNTY Estate of William W Taylor dec d necessity of seeking the recipient for this purpose at his place of abode If this be at a considerable distance or obstacles should be purposely laid in the way to cause more than necessary trouble or annoyance it might present a case upon a proper application for the interposition of the court But until such an emergency arises it may be assumed that the mutual interest of the parties will bring about voluntarily some reasonable understanding 2 The second inquiry is directly before the court because necessary to be determined for a proper distribution of the fund in hand Upon this point we are clearly of opinion that the trustee is entitled to reasonable commissions upon the income which he collects and pays over and that he is entitled to retain it out of the gross sum so collected See Spangler's Estate 9 Harris 335 Wister's Appeal 5 Norris 160 Barclay's Estate 2 WNC 447 O Donnell's Estate 4 WNC 91 5 WNC 534 and other cases Guided by the line of authorities just cited five per cent commission upon the income cannot be considered excessive and it is accordingly allowed at that rate 3 The effect of the charge of commissions upon the gross amount of income collected is of course to reduce by that much the income payable to the residuary legatee because the particular legacies mentioned in the will as payable in fixed and specified sums must be paid as directed Were these legacies made payable out of the corpus of the estate instead of annuities payable out of the income no one would think of deducting from their specified amounts any part of the expenses for settling the estate of which expenses the commissions are a part And there can be no better reason given for such abatement when a fixed sum is bequeathed to be paid as an annuity out of the income 4 The same reasoning settles the question concerning the state tax no part of which can be deducted from the fixed sums payable to the annuitants These conclusions as respects the non abatement of particular pecuniary legacies in favor of the residuary legatee result from the nature of a residuary bequest which is dependent upon the net balance which remains after the payment of the debts of the estate and LAW REPORTER 167 Estate of William W Taylor dec d the expenses of settlement and the complete satisfaction of all specific and general legacies Until after these are paid there is no residue and the residuary legatee can demand contribution for nothing See Bentz vs Neiman 6 Watts 85 Williams on Executors Vol I p I 165 There is to this but one exception to wit When a deficiency of assets results from a devastavit See Strohm's Appeal 11 Harris 351 5 The fifth question propounded by the case stated regarding the times and modes of making the annual or quarterly deductions from the gross income to ascertain the balance payable quarterly to Mrs Rambo is a question which may well be left to the mutual agreement of the trustee and Mrs Rambo herself It would seem preferable to equalize the quarterly payments of Harriet Rambo's annuity as nearly as practicable According to the foregoing principles the equal quarterly payments to which Mrs Rambo is entitled would be ascertained as follows Whole income of trust estate for one year $471.92 Special annuities $105 00 State tax at three mills 28.31 Trustee's commission 23.59 $156 90 Yearly balance of residuary income $315 02 One fourth of same due quarterly to Mrs Rambo 78.75 There being in the hands of the trustee at this time a sufficient surplus to pay to Harriet Rambo the amount of one quarter's instalment of the yearly annuity Now November 2 1885 it is adjudged and decreed that $78.75 be paid to her by the said trustee in discharge of the same accordingly I68 MONTGOMERY COUNTY

57 M v. George Taylor [9004] was born in 1861 in Wisconsin.

25. Hannah Taylor [6101] (*Daniel*², *William*¹) was born on 11 Oct 1836 in Nova Scotia, Canada and died on 8 Apr 1864 in Knox, IL at age 27.

General Notes: John Wyman

Son of Arthur and Anna Salts Wyman, was born in Vinton County, Ohio, July 25, 1830. He received a common school education. His father was a native of New York State. His maternal grandfather was Edward.

Mr. Wyman came to Persifer Township, Knox County, Illinois, when twenty-four years of age. He was a single man, and began life on a small scale when he arrived in Illinois, he had as capital $210 in cash, with which he bought stock and grazed and fed them. Prospering in this undertaking, he soon after purchased eighty acres of land. He was in debt, but was possessed with energy which insures success. He was soon able to discharge all his indebtedness, and to engage in larger business enterprises. He bought more stock, and purchased more land so that at one time he owned not less than twelve hundred acres. If Mr. Wyman now possesses less land than formerly, it is because he has adopted the plan of giving a farm to each of his sons. Mr. Wyman is a wealthy man, a generous and kind-hearted father. These qualities of mind and of heart are as clearly exhibited in the wider relations of life as in those of the family. He is a good counselor, a trusted friend, a kind neighbor, and is always ready to extend a helping hand to the unfortunate and the distressed. Honest in his dealings with his fellowmen. he has made it clear to those who know him that wealth may be accumulated with taint of dishonor; that a strong purpose aided by integrity, economy, and perseverance, is still the most potent factor in securing the double harvest of life -- material prosperity and a noble manhood.

Mr. Wyman was married to Hannah, daughter of Daniel Taylor, December 22, 1854. She died April 08, 1864; there were three children; Henry, who married Lovina Montgomery; Charles, who married Effie Wilson; and Eunice Ann, the wife of Edward Russell.

On October 17, he married, at Knoxville, Illinois, Katharine, daughter, of Frederick and Eliza Hammond Mundwiler. Three children were born to them: Eliza, wife of Guy Manley; Arthur, who married Fannie Farquer; and Ida J., wife of Harvey England. Mrs. Wyman's father was born in York Cou7nty, Pennsylvania; her mother was a native of Franklin County, in the same state; they came to Knox County, Illinois when Mrs. Wyman was twenty years of age.

Descendants of William Taylor

Mr. Wyman is a republican. He has not sought office; but for many years served his township in the capacity of Road Commissioner, and his influence in town affairs has been extensive and valuable.

The organization of the township was effected on April 5, 1853. This organization took place at the Nevitt school house, southwest of Gilson two and one-half miles. The following officers were elected: William M. Clarke, Supervisor; Woodford Pierce, Clerk; Isaac Lott, Assessor; Joseph Harshbarger, Collector; Jacob Wolf, Overseer of the Poor; John S. Linn and Enoc Godfrey, Justices of the Peace; George Pickrel and William Lewis, Constables; Milton Lotts, Allen T. Rambo and Benoni Simpkins, Commissioners of Highways. The present officers follow C.H. Upp, Supervisor; Clark H. Snow, Assessor; C.C. Dossett, Overseer of Poor; C.H. Upp (by virtue of office) Justice of Peace; Earl Snell, Constable; John Housh and H.L. Connor, Commissioner of Highways, Ben Taylor. With my limited knowledge, prior to 1865, I am unable to give the location of the first farm and how cultivated, but I should judge that the method of cultivation was principally by the one and two-horse cultivators, as a great many of these settlers were from Ohio and there they had to use the one and two-horse cultivators, on account of stumps and roots in the ground. Much improvement has been made in this part of the country in the farming line in the manner of preparing the seed bed before planting or sowing the seed. The farm tractor is just now coming into use in Haw Creek. It may eventually take the place of horses in the extra heavy, hard and hot work. http://www.usgennet.org/usa/il/county/knox/annuals_knox_8.htm

217 - - kaycrowl@netins.net - My great grandmother, is the daughter of William Cutting Taylor and Maria Emeline Parkins. Harriet Adeatha Taylor was born July 4, 1862. Harriet married Willford Marshall Rambo March 15, 1881. I am looking for the name of Harriet Adeatha Taylor's brother and his birthdate. Willford and Harriet married in Knox Co., Illinois and moved to the Spokane, Wash. area. (I have pictures of him, and was always told that he was the Taylor in Bill Cody's Wild West Show.) The pictures of "Buck" Taylor match those I have of Harriet's brother. Just trying to solve the problem. If anyone has any information, please send it. Thank you.

Descendants of William Taylor

HAHA Pat, in the 1920 censuses, she is listed as Louis H. Taylor 6, in the 1930 censuses she is called Lois H. 16 and in the 1940 censuses she is referred to as Harriet 26. guess you have to decide on one or list all three.

In the Montana, County Marriages, 1865-1950 is listed Fred B. Taylor married 17 Dec. 1911 in Hardin, Yellowstone, Montana, age 48, Widowed, birthplace, Oxford, Henry, Illinois, father's name William C. Taylor and mother is Maria Parkins to Alice W. Keeling, 33 Single ETC....So this is definitely his second wife, and they had one daughter Louis H. Taylor b. about 1914. Do you agree so far? If so, we need to find wife #1 and to find what children they had, if any.....

In the 1930 Census you posted, this would be the Fred B Taylor b. 1890. The Fred B. Taylor b. 1865 (76) was the one who married Alice Keeling 61 and she is still alive as per the 1940 Census in Big Ben, Montana with their daughter Louis H. 26(she is referred to as Harriet in this census).

Noted events in her life were:

- She was buried in Green Hills Memorial Park, Los Angeles, CA.

Lois married Lawrence P. Allhouse [8106] [MRIN: 98] on 24 Dec 1946.

Frederick next married Blanche M. Deaver [8048] [MRIN: 2921], daughter of L. T. Deaver [9361] and Margaret A. Rusk [9362], on 7 Apr 1898 in Creston, Union, Iowa, USA. Blanche was born in 1873 in Iowa.

41. Thomas E. Taylor [77] (*David*³, *Daniel*², *William*¹) was born in 1855.

Isaac A. Carroll Obituary

Carroll: Isaac A. Carroll died at Boulder, Colo., Sabbath, Dec. 17, 1920, aged 61 1/2 years. He was born in Illinois. His parents came here from Nova Scotia and died when Isaac was three years old. (Note: His mother was born in Nova Scotia but his father was born in Ohio). A good Presbyterian family adopted and raised the orphan. (Note: He was raised by his grandparents).

He has lived in Colorado since 1885 and was married to Miss Belle Sisley thirty two years ago. He accepted the third angel's message eighteen years ago from Elder L.A. Spring and others and the fruits of righteousness have ever since been seen in his daily life. He was ever helping others more needy than himself.

Bereft of their loved one, his wife and son Ivor are blessed with the consolation that he rests from his labors and his works do follow him. Their great sorrow is pierced by rays of hope. The bitterness and sting of death is softened by the hope of a glorious resurrection.

Funeral services were conducted by Elder B.W. Brown, assisted by the writer.

There is no headstone. Isaac Carroll is known to be buried in A-101-NW, but there is no indication in the records regarding exactly which grave space. Boulder Genealogical Society's research suggests his remains are in Space 1, north of what remains of the Arthur G. Carrol gravemarker. The red bouquet marks this location in A-101-NW.
